

The Effects on Cultural Values

If the Proposed Site C Dam were to be constructed

- The ability to share stories and pass on knowledge will be impacted if sacred spaces are flooded
- BC Hydro thinks digging up our history and putting it in a museum is acceptable mitigation
- The Peace River Valley remaining intact is important in maintaining our cultural and spiritual identity
- The valley is rich in cultural values that require protection for future generations to enjoy, flooding this value only adds to cultural loss.

The Effects on Cultural Values If the Proposed Site C Dam were to be con-

- The ability to share stories and pass on knowledge will be impacted if sacred spaces are flooded
- BC Hydro thinks digging up our history and putting it in a museum is acceptable mitigation
- The Peace River Valley remaining intact is important in maintaining our cultural and spiritual identity
- The valley is rich in cultural values that require protection for future generations to enjoy, flooding this value only adds to cultural loss.

The Effects on Cultural Values

If the Proposed Site C Dam were to be con-

- The ability to share stories and pass on knowledge will be impacted if sacred spaces are flooded
- BC Hydro thinks digging up our history and putting it in a museum is acceptable mitigation
- The Peace River Valley remaining intact is important in maintaining our cultural and spiritual identity
- The valley is rich in cultural values that require protection for future generations to enjoy, flooding this value only adds to cultural loss.

The Effects on Cultural Values If the Proposed Site C Dam were to be con-

- The ability to share stories and pass on knowledge will be impacted if sacred spaces are flooded
- BC Hydro thinks digging up our history and putting it in a museum is acceptable mitigation
- The Peace River Valley remaining intact is important in maintaining our cultural and spiritual identity
- The valley is rich in cultural values that require protection for future generations to enjoy, flooding this value only adds to cultural loss.