

Solidarity Matters

You're invited to attend a dress event for the MMIWG.

4:30 pm-7 pm

March 15

Northern Lights College

Join us in solidarity to raise awareness for all the missing and murdered indigenous women across Canada. Red dresses representing these women will hang around Fort St. John as a visual reminder of how many women we have lost. This project aims to create a visual response to an ongoing national issue, that concerns all Canadians.

For more information contact

Tiffany Mearow

tiffany_mearow@hotmail.com