

TREATY 8 TRIBAL ASSOCIATION

CULTURAL EMPLOYMENT STRATEGY PROGRAM

Facilitator Training

So You Want To Be A Professional Presenter?

Are you interested in learning how to facilitate your own workshops and deliver short courses?

Do you want to learn how to plan and deliver effective presentations?

Do you want to develop critical thinking skills, make concise points and moderate group discussions?

Do you want to learn presentation skills and practice public speaking in a supportive environment?

If you answered yes to any of these, sign up now for the Treaty 8 facilitator training session while there is still room!

The two day "Facilitator Training" session will be led by Art Napoleon and co-facilitated by Karen Aird. It will take place at Tse'K'wa (Charlie Lake House) on January 26th & 27th and will be followed by a second training session which will be offered in the spring of 2017, "Effective Cross Cultural Training" so watch for the posting.

Art is the Host of APTN's Moosemeat & Marmalade and a Roster member of the Keynote Speakers Canada. Art has 25 years of experience in facilitation and curriculum development.

Karen, an archaeologist by trade, has been working extensively as a cultural heritage strategist and has experience working nationally on indigenous heritage & cultural development.

Come and learn the power of effective presentations and dynamic delivery with this amazing duo. Members will learn how to deliver cultural learning camps and retreats. This training may also be of interest to teacher aides, wilderness guides and anyone with an interest in cultural tourism and traditional knowledge. Seats are limited so get signed up.
